Contract sharing scheme in Quebec City: three new decisions by the Disciplinary Council of the Ordre des ingénieurs du Québec

Montreal, December 6, 2016 – The Disciplinary Council of the Ordre des ingénieurs du Québec recently rendered decisions on guilt and penalty in the cases of three individuals who participated in a contract sharing scheme designed to circumvent Quebec City's competitive bidding process between 2006 and 2010.

Patrice Mathieu is struck off the OIQ's roll for a period of 18 months for the actions he committed while working for Tecslut. Read this decision.

Émile Langlois is struck off the OIQ's roll for a period of 18 months for the actions he committed while working for Teknika HBA. Read this decision.

Michel Émond is struck off the OIQ's roll for a period of 14 months for the actions he committed while working for SNC-Lavalin. This sanction reflects Mr. Émond's excellent cooperation with the inquiry conducted by the OIQ's Office of the Syndic. Read this decision.

In these decisions, the Disciplinary Council also ordered the three respondents to pay all costs in connection with the disciplinary proceedings, including publication costs.

As Mr. Langlois and Mr. Émond are no longer OIQ members, their penalties will become enforceable when they have registered again on the OIQ's roll.

The sanctions imposed by the Disciplinary Council are meant to protect the public by dissuading professionals from repeating offences and by setting an example for other members of the profession.
